

MINE, ME, & US Montessori School is looking for a Montessori Credentialed Lead Infant Teacher who:

Philosophically

- Have a steadfast commitment to the Montessori Philosophy and Method for young children
- Are passionate about our natural world and about working with toddlers to creating habits of environmental stewardship
- Truly enjoy the world of food and feel compelled to share with young children the joys of planting, tending, harvesting, preparing, and eating organic fruits, vegetables, and herbs
- View young children as human beings deserving of the highest respect for their unique wisdom, thoughts, feelings, and intuition

Personally

- Are self-starters, yet work well with a collegial team of Montessori teachers
- Are equally competent working with children and supporting their parents
- Are comfortable with autonomy and leadership in the classroom
- Truly and fundamentally enjoy being around children

Professionally

- Consider themselves a Montessorian as well as a Montessori Teacher
- Are interested in a career, not just a job
- Are interested in being a part of the continued creation of MINE, ME, & US Montessori School.

MINE, ME, & US Montessori School is committed to providing a collegial, stimulating, and respectful environment with ample opportunities for professional growth. To this end, MINE faculty enjoy:

- Tuition assistance for Montessori Certification training
- Health Insurance
- Faculty tuition discounts for their children
- Extensive paid time off each year
- Merit-based raises

Check out our website to see if MINE, ME, & US Montessori School is a good fit for you.

Send resume and cover letter to:

Rachel Brunsma, Head of School

Attention: Lead Infant Teacher

headofschool@minemontessori.com | headofschool@mmu.ms