

Hiring!

Montessori Certified Lead Infant Teacher

MINE, ME & US Montessori School is hiring a Montessori certified Infant-Toddler Lead teacher for the Nido Environment (ages walking to 18 months).

MINE, ME & US Montessori School educates and cares for children ages 6 weeks through 12 years. It is a unique Montessori school because it offers all-day, all-year Montessori education and care. During the summer months, the Montessori curriculum continues with a much stronger emphasis on wonders of nature and the world of organic food.

MMUMS is located in Blacksburg, Virginia in the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains and home to Virginia Tech University. Blacksburg has vibrant art, organic farming, and academic communities. It continues to be voted one of the ten best places to raise a family. Blacksburg is surrounded by quaint towns that offer antique shopping, local cuisine, hiking and running trails, kayaking, mountain climbing, and much more.

MINE, ME & US Montessori School is looking for teachers who:

Philosophically

- Have a steadfast commitment to the Montessori Philosophy and Method for the youngest children
- Truly enjoy the world of food and feel compelled to share with even the very young the joys of planting, tending, harvesting, preparing, and eating organic fruits, vegetables, and herbs
- View infants very young children as human beings deserving of the highest respect for their unique wisdom, thoughts, feelings, and intuition

Personally

- Are self-starters, yet work well with a collegial team of Montessori teachers
- Are equally competent working with infants and the very young and supporting their parents
- Are comfortable with autonomy and leadership in the classroom
- Truly and fundamentally enjoy being around infants and very young children

Professionally

- Consider themselves a Montessorian as well as a Montessori Teacher
- Are interested in a career, not just a job

MINE, ME & US Montessori School is committed to providing a collegial, stimulating, and respectful environment with ample opportunities for professional growth. To this end MMUMS faculty enjoy:

- Funded tuition for Montessori Certification training
- 100% faculty tuition waivers for their children
- 6.5 paid weeks off per year
- Merit-based raises throughout the year
- Competitive salary based on education, certification, and experience.

Check out our website to see if MMUMS is a good fit for you. We look forward to hearing from you!
